

Columbia's Successful
Opera Season Is Over

By Sylvester Baerling

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY'S season of opera came to an end last night with a repetition of the double bill, "Cavalleria" and "Pagliacci." The crowd was estimated at 10,000. The weather was perfect and the audience enjoyed the opera and made a fair showing upon the campus. There was a delightful "Cavalleria" encore. "Pagliacci," a new York, said to have been created by Mr. Puccini, who designed a contralto voice of fair quality and power, and a soprano.

that was attending. For the rest the casts of both operas were the same, including Claudia Muzio, Loris Vanni, Luca Botta, Giuseppe Gaudenzi, Auguste Bouillon and Mario Vain.

The season has been a success. Financially as well as artistically. It is believed that Columbia will make a similar opera a yearly feature.

WANT POPULAR PRICED CARS.

"As the times grow on, it becomes more apparent that we will not be able to keep the business as popular as it was in the past. We are looking for an opportunity to make a change."

Concerning the Furnishing of Homes

It takes some foresight to furnish well. Even more foresight to furnish at the psychological moment.

In the first case Mary does practically all the thinking for you.

In the second Mary prolongs the psychological moment throughout the whole month of August, in ONE ENORMOUS FURNITURE SALE which gives thousands of customers a chance to buy bargains.

Here are the chances, the time and the place, all together. COME BUY.

Our Offer

You want to know what you are buying? Certainly—we like that type of customer.

You Are Buying

furniture that has been searched for all over the furniture-manufacturing sections of the United States, by one of the shrewdest judges in the trade. HE REPRESENTS Mary.

You Are Buying

furniture that has been inspected in the making, finishing and upholstering by one who would not excuse a flaw or a fault. Nothing but the best would satisfy him. HE REPRESENTS Mary.

You Are Buying

furniture that a judge of design has pronounced to be at the same time up to date and in good taste. He would not even glance at patterns that were lying around at a discount because they had proved unpopular. HE REPRESENTS Mary.

You Are Buying

furniture that has been specially assembled for this Great Sale from the whole of the wide territory covered by our representative and then marked down far below the regular selling price. SOMETIMES THE REDUCTIONS HAVE BEEN AS GREAT AS 50%.

Finally, you are buying furniture at prices you will have little chance to find again for a long time to come. Every industry connected with the industry is advancing in price—the woolly, the plate glass, the metal—even the varnishes and glue.

These are simple, common sense arguments. A sale like this does not need boosting in extravagant words. Even the name "Sale" carries a wrong impression, suggesting the marking down of shopworn merchandise, while this is an assemblage of absolutely new goods bought at big discounts because of the huge amounts we were able to take at once.

Now, do you fully comprehend what you may buy from Monday next on throughout August at Mary?

What do you think of our offer?

We shall be glad to have you confirm our statements by personal inspection. Though we expect to be very busy, there is plenty of room on the Sixth Floor for those who want to look long before they purchase. You may want to look several times, and bring your friends to help in a decision. Do so by all means. Every friend of yours who comes in to see the furniture in this sale will go out a friend of Mary.

Only don't forget the sale ends with the end of August.
